ACTARUS

Comedy, danger and interaction

Description:

First performed in 2007, Stage show or Streetshow.

Zanzibar is here, a case and a big unicycle and the show begins. Skills and comedy are on the menu for this very french circus show. Crowd interaction, incredible glasses tricks you won't forget and with many surprises on the way, Zanzibar manage to finish the show juggling on top of his 5 ft unicycle.

Duration : 40 minutes. In french or English . Performed by Julien Bouley

Zanzibar is a circus artist and a street performer, who has a 29 years experience performing in 17 countries on 5 continents. The show combines comedy, juggling, object manipulation , balancing, danger and crowd interaction. The act has been evolving for 22 years, the artist always improvise to keep the show alive and to keep the control of the performance's rythm. Technically it's a real circus performance juggling 7 balls , manipulating hat, club and glasses together with style and also the grand finale juggling clubs ontop of a 5 ft unicycle. The aim of the show is to entertain, make laugh , impress and to get the audience involved. In order to do that the comedian uses all his expertise.
